Dahlonega Signal.

DAHLONEGA, Sept. 27, 1895.

Entered at Dahlonega, Ga., P. O., as second class matter.

Snow was eleven inches deep on Sunday at Denver, Colorado.

The mining convention will be held in Atlanta on October 1st and 2nd.

Thousands of people are dying daily of cholera in the big cities of China.

Ten parties were sent to the chau gang from Cherokee county last week.

A sofa found exploded in Atlanta the other day injuring several persons and shaking the buildings for several blocks away.

The liberty bell will arrive in Atlanta October 8th. The Columbian bell is already there. It weighs 13,000 pounds.

Augusta will be boycotted by a majority of the farmers of the 10th district if she repeats her fraud in the next congressional election.

Governor Upson, of Wisconsin, while going up Lookout Mountain in Tennessee the other day fell and broke his leg caused by stepping upon his daughter's skirt.

Don't you reckon Col. Robinson, of Habersham, is troubled mighty with nightmare now on account of some of the sayings of a one or two of the "yellow money" two by four newspaper of his district?

Arrangements are being perfected for moving the Bennett house near Durham, N.C., in which Gen. Joseph E. Johnson surrendered to Gen. Sherman, to Atlanta. A number of ex-confederates will accompany it.

The registration vote of Richmonde county just closed totals up 7,430 which shows a considerable falling off in voters since 1894. At that time 18,000 voters were cast and the numbers counted 15,000 of them. Didn't this show fraud?

It has been estimated by well-informed authorities that it takes an average of over $2,000,000 to convert one Chinaman and the worst of it is that for every Chinaman converted to Christianity at least a thousand Christians have been converted into corpses.—Phil. Record.

Courier: T. J. Perry, who lives a few miles out from Dublin, informs us that a short time ago, he drew from his well a catfish about three inches long. There was no apparent means of the fish getting into the well and it is a mystery how he found his lonely home. The well stands open and it is thought it rained him down.

The Mayor of Atlanta has vetoed the ordinance recently passed by the city council silencing the bars of that city to keep open until 12 o'clock at night. Mayor King certainly did right for there will be enough money spent for liquor by ten o'clock and if the bars were to keep open two hours longer each night the station house would not hold all those getting into trouble.

Certain sections of the country seem to be having a plagued hard time of it just about now. Kansas has a plague of grasshoppers, Massachusetts a plague of gypsy moths, Ohio a plague of snails, Dakota a plague of Russian thistle, Pennsylvania a plague of tent worms, and South Carolina a plague of politicians. Happily, Georgia is not in the list. She is gathering corn and fodder, and looking after the pigs, cattle and poultry.—Save. News.

21st Atlanta was thronged with old veterans of both armies, it being "Blue and Gray" day at the exposition. There were in attendance five federal generals, to wit: Schofield, Dodge, Howard, Porter and Williamson. Gen. Longstreet represented the gray. Six governors of as many great states, each accompanied by his staff. G. W. McKinley, of Ohio; Gov. McRae of New York; Gov. Woodberry of Vermont; Gov. Werfs of New Jersey; Gov. Holcombe, of Nebraska and Gov. McFadden, of Colorado.

Cavalry Progress: The editor of the Progress made a business trip to Gainesville a few days ago. He found the Queen City in a prosper condition and doing a rushing business. Her merchants are very much interested in the Dahlonega railroad and want to see it run there, but the town does not seem to be up to snuff in railroad matters. Most of the merchants say that they would subscribe largely to keep the road from being built at all. They recognize that it will hurt them whether it is built or not, but believe that it would be more beneficial to have it.

The Exposition.

The great show of the South is now open in Atlanta and will be visited by hundreds and thousands of people every day until it closes. It is a grand success and shows what enterprising men like Atlanta can accomplish. Three cheers for Atlanta and her big show. Lumpkin county will be represented, in due time as every one who can raise enough money will be on hand.

The Murder Trial.

We have been frequently asked what the evidence was against M. E. Smith, which is said Brother Smith, a son of A. W. Smith, of White county, in the recent murder trial, who was tried here a few days ago charged with being implicated in the murder of Jasper Gilbert, which occurred in Lumpkin county some days ago. There was nothing sworn against Smith to justify Squire Norton to bind the man and he turned him loose. Smith never introduced a single witness and the state's own witnesses never showed a shadow of guilt against him. It was shown that Smith had no other intent than to protect the good name of his sister, which is the inescapable duty of every man. It seems that "Brother" was one of the most considerate men of his age that we have noticed. He kept his brother as he was afraid that he would hastily shoot this man Green that killed Gilbert, and as Green bitterly denied it to us, he was told that he was a small lad and now he has reached manhood.

Mr. Theodore Clark, one of the members of the Crescent Gold Mining Co., residing at Grand Rapids, Mich., paid our town a pleasant visit this week. He was accompanied by Miss Smith, a charming young lady.

We were misinformed as to the position that Mr. Sturzendorf occupies at the Atlanta exposition. He is not acting as policeman. His business is general inspector of gate keepers—to see that everything goes right.

Col. Lyle visited Gainesville last Saturday on business. He says that all the citizens he talked to about the railroad seem to think that it will be run from Lula or Belton and that they will be left in the dark as far as the Dahlonega railroad is concerned.

Bill Scott, being so anxious to see the railroad some weeks ago that he went over to North Carolina and while making a close examination of the track got crippled by falling through the stock rack and came back to Georgia with one of his legs under treatment.

Personal Mention.

Bro. McNeely visited the exposition last week. Col. Boyd visited Towns county this week on a courting expedition.

J. T. Miller and family, of Aurora, passed through Dahlonega last Sunday.

Miss Virginia Waters, of Randa, has been on a visit to Dahlonega for several days.

Dr. Cotter, who is stopping at Porters Springs, visited Dahlonega several times this week.

Dr. Weld, vice-president of the Hand Gold Mining Co., who has been absent from Dahlonega for some days, has returned.

Mr. Smith, who is located at the Garnet mine, spent several hours in our town last Saturday, accompanied by his good lady.

Rev. James D. Parks spent a few days with his parents at the parsonage, and left last week for Nashville, where he enters Vanderbilt University.

Geo. Imboden, son of Jacob Imboden, who left here some years ago, arrived in our town last Sunday afternoon. When he left here he was a small lad and now he has reached manhood.

Mr. Theodore Clark, one of the members of the Crescent Gold Mining Co., residing at Grand Rapids, Mich., paid our town a pleasant visit this week. He was accompanied by Miss Smith, a charming young lady.

Bill Scott, being so anxious to see the railroad some weeks ago that he went over to North Carolina and while making a close examination of the track got crippled by falling through the stock rack and came back to Georgia with one of his legs under treatment.

The State Asylum.

The following telegram from Milledgeville to the Atlanta Journal of last Saturday, shows the condition of Georgia's Insane Asylum.

There are at present in the lunatic asylum, two miles from this city, 1,840 patients, one third of whom are colored. The institution is filled to its utmost capacity but by December 1 the new buildings, costing one hundred thousand dollars, will be completed, and there will be ample accommodations for many others.

The Captain presented us with his books for inspection and so were not long in finding out that the city treasury of the town of Dahlonega is in an unusually condition and as only a weekly editor's meal board on Saturday afternoons.

The books are kept in a clear legible manner, showing every nickel that is received, as well as paid out, who to and on what day.

The books show that there has only been $214.20 paid into the treasury up to date all told for the present year, and that $255.67 has been paid out—$42.37 more than has been received.

Not a dozen persons in Dahlonega have paid their property tax according to the treasurer's books. The Hall's Mill Co. paid on July 9, $44.90 and on the same day F. W. Hall paid $71.35, being more than one-half the total amount that has reached the bands of the treasury this year. Only a total of two dollars fine money has been paid into the treasury. There are fourteen officers and two hundred and fifty attendants and other employees.

Dahlonega Signal.

DAHLONEGA, Sept. 27, 1895.

Prof. Vickery is now occupying his residence near the college.

Twenty-five persons were baptized at Mt. Gilgal last Sunday.

J. F. Moore is receiving lumber to build a cottage on his lot near his residence.

The weather has been beautiful for our up country farmers to save their fodder but dreadful warn.

Capt. Ingerson, of Dahlonega, has a heifer that is only fifteen months old giving a half gallon of milk per day.

The heavy blasts that can be heard at the Lockhart mine every day, preparing to get the water on the mill again, reminds us of cannoneading during the war.

The students of the N. G. A. College will visit the Atlanta exposition about the middle of next month and show the visitors how well they can handle their guns.

We guess that some of our democratic gold bug papers are so strong in the cause that they won't take silver money for subscriptions to their paper is the reason why the SIGNAL has the most readers.

Capt. Hall and Col. Boyd visited Union county last Friday in the interest of the Dahlonega railroad and got $200 from some of the enterprising farmers in the vicinity of Gaddistown.

Dahlonega is undoubtedly the greatest place in the world for persons owing another to settle it by giving an order to some store. Men will do this at the same time have the money in their pockets.

All county offices might do well to get their books in good trim for the executive committee of the county is liable to happen in on them now at any time as suddenly and unexpected as a post office in-spector.

Notwithstanding Bro. Ham, of the Georgia Cracker, exhausts a good deal of gas while making democratic speeches, he is getting out a paper that is a credit to the city of Gainesville and one which their citizens should be proud of.

The deep hole in the side walk near E. W. Strickland's, which was taken by a stranger for a gas well, has been filled up and all the high weeds mowed down, and now a person can travel it without getting his leg broken or being damaged by snakes.

The last grand jury can now rest easy. The blind man has quit the poor house and it is said, gone to manufacturing temperance drops. This will furnish food for the courts as long as it lasts and enable future grand juries to sit two weeks at $1.50 per day for each member.

The present chestnut crop in the mountains is said to be large. This will be a great blessing to all poor people who gather them and send them off to market. They generally bring a good price and help much toward paying taxes and settling off other claims in the fall.

The post master at Two Run informs us that the SIGNAL are beginning to receive very irregular at his office. They are due there on Fridays but sometimes don't reach their destination until the Monday following, and week before last papers didn't get there at all. We are not to blame for we deliver our papers every Friday at 7:30 a. m. It does look like that when we get the daily morning paper from Macon, a distance of 181 miles, the day that it is published, that we might be able to get our papers up to Two Run a distance of about ten miles in less than four days. Let us see if we can't do better in the future.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

Mrs. Dan Davis returned from the West last Tuesday.

There is a big demand for lumber in Dahlonega just now.

Capt. Allen of Dahlonega, is in Atlanta "hoteling" it during the exposition.

The ordinary has been having more work done on Crooked Creek road which is now in very good condition.

There are numbers of persons, both old and young, in Lumpkin county that never rode on a railroad car in their lives.

Uncle Charlie Besser says that this is a funny town arrangement on account of lighting up the street lamps after every body has gone to bed.

Two of our merchants have refused to pay their town taxes this year on account, they claim, that the assessment against them being too much.

We are informed that W. A. Wood anticipates putting up a saw mill on his property in the edge of Crainly's district, some four miles from town.

Seeing one of the street lamps burning last Sunday until noon made us think that the democratic wave of prosperity had probably struck Dahlonega.

Our town treasury is as poor as a church mouse, notwithstanding much unnecessary work is being done the same as if the Rothchilids were footing the bill.

We are informed that Dr. Wheland has purchased a building site on Park Street from W. S. Huff. Of course this means that another building will be erected in Dahlonega some time in the future.

J. P. Parker, ex-president of the Sons of Rest of Dahlonega, writes back from Pryor Creek, I. T., that corn is selling out there at ten cents per bushel. This shows that the democratic wave of success, heretofore spoken of, has struck that section first and the farmers are reaping its benefits(?)

The work of building dams in front of the Methodist church was completed last week and a lot of clouds and rocks thrown in the center of the road, some of the latter weighing as much as sixty pounds. It is strange that this foolish job should have been done when three out of the five members of the council express themselves as being opposed to it.

There will be comparatively nothing done at the next sitting of the legislature on account of the exposition. Nearly every member of this honorable body, except the barefoot boy, having his part of the fun going on, has announced himself as a candidate for the mayoralty of Gainesville. The candidate has already been tried in this capacity and getting disappointed in receiving some material cause the delay.

We notice that our friend Judge Gaston, who used to travel the streets of Dahlonega while a barefoot boy, having his part of the fun going on, has announced himself as a candidate for the mayoralty of Gainesville. The candidate has already been tried in this capacity and never failed to "new to the line" while he occupied the honorable position, causing the marshal and policemen under him to do likewise.

There is quite a difference in the wages of cooks in Atlanta and Dahlonega. At the Kimball House "dry" cooks get $50 per month, while here the food preparers get only two dollars per week and then have to take orders to some store where they are told that they can only be paid in dry goods, that the fellow may be behind with the merchant, who will tell the holder of the order that they had as soon pay the cash to us to get groceries go.

Both the faculty and town authorities turn the school boys loose on Friday nights and the fun they have in hollowing and singing can't be imagined by those not accustomed to such things.

Arch Twigs had a hearing before Justice Norton Friday night, charged with selling liquor by Deuter Corn, and was acquitted. Twigs is a witness against Corn for passing counterfeit money except the master.

James B. Wirt, now of Atlanta, anticipates visiting Dahlonega shortly. Jim has an interest in the Yellow Jacket mine in this county and could probably be induced to sell out when he arrives, as his intent seems to be book keeping instead of mining.

Notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Christian Wahl lives in a far off Northern State, he sent his note last week to the Dahlonega Railroad Co. for one thousand dollars and tenders the Company the right of way through his property which is equal to $2,000.

Sheriff Prather and constable Rickets visited the lower edge of the county first Friday and made two arrests—Mrs. Can Reeves, charged with selling liquor to riot. Both made bonds for their appearance at the next term of Lumpkin Superior Court.

Capt. Hall says there has been less wind during 1895 than for years. He judges from the small quantity of water his wind mill is supplying. This is an off year in which we can expect much wind for the democrats have about exhausted and our supply of wind will have to come from some other source now.

The law which was passed by our town council first of the year, not allowing street hands to hire substitutes to perform their road duty, was recently, on motion of Councilman Hall, repealed. The marshal is also instructed when compelled to get hands to hire only those residing within the corporate limits, so long as he is enabled to do so.

Remember that an election for Mayor and councilmen is to be held on the first Saturday in December and if you desire to vote in this election you must register at an early day as the time is very short, before the books will close. The books will be found open at the ordinary's office. They will close on the 16th of November.

The bottom of the reservoir at the Preacher mine dropped out last Tuesday which caused the hands to stand in amazement for awhile. The water found its way into an old tunnel that was unknown to the laborers and as it passed through it pressed the air out at another place throwing rocks and dirt high above their heads somewhat representing a volcano, which caused a suspension of work for a day or two.

Some time ago an ordinary in order to make it convenient for young people desiring to marry, signed up a lot of blank license and put them in the hands of various Justices of the Peace of the county who upon application, would fill them out and perform the marriage ceremony, all for $1.50. We thought this was unusually accommodating, but the Ordinary of Fannin county takes the cake. Last week he issued license and married a couple himself and if he even belongs to the church we do not know.

Wash Walker, residing near Porter Springs was relieved of $200 in gold last Monday in the following manner: Jim Satterfield and Jim Walker, the latter a son of Wash, was in the store and Satterfield got Wash Walker to change $50 to find out where the merchant had gotten his money. Satterfield took the old man out into the yard, engaged in a conversation while Jimmie got his father's money. Both have shaken the dirt of that section from their heels. Jimmie is the boy who shot at his father, he fell dead a few nights ago thinking it belonged to his father.

About the Railroad.

Of course every one wants to know about the railroad. Well the surveyors have reached as far as the Boley Fields mine with their permanent survey on their way from this place to the copper mines.

Capt. Hall, a member of the committee who receives and takes charge of all the notes given for subscription to the Dahlonega Railroad Company, informed us last Tuesday that there had been some over nineteen thousand dollars subscribed. The notes had been looked over and it was found that $18,100 could be collected which leaves $1,900 yet behind, which will have to be secured in the next few days as Capt. Hall is expected soon and the master will have to come to a close at an early period.

Capt. W. J. Worley is now out in the country endeavoring to raise his amount so as to be ready to present Mr. Baldwin the full amount ($20,000) asked for by him in notes and are perfectly good.

Judge Gaston, who obligated himself to pay $250 will withdraw his subscription unless the road comes from Gainesville.

So you all have the railroad news in a nut shell.

Dahlonega Signal.

DALHONEGA, Oct. 18, 1895.

Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O., as second class matter.

The reason why there is so much 10c. cotton is there was but little raised. Everything gets high when it gets scarce, of course.

Rome Hustler. The Columbus Ledger is the brightest "what they is a-tall?" The Hustler gets off some spicy things when it comes to the foolishness.

The "Salute to Atlanta," is one of the latest pieces of music out. It was composed by Mr. Victor Herbert, and was first played in public in the auditorium of the exposition.

The Butcher's Breeze is a new paper just started by the devil of this office. It says: "Our local reporter died last week which has placed ye editor in a bad predicament. 'Praise, God, from Whom all blessings flow.'

The Cleveland Progress is a critic as well as a good country sheet. We would like for its editor to correct the following sentence, which appeared in his last issue: "Several ton of ore are being got out for practical mill test," etc.

Cleveland Progress. "A prayer meeting will be held in the Baptist church every Thursday night," etc. Do the people of Cleveland usually hold their meetings out doors, Brother Price? Or do they crawl under the house?

The great bell, which so long ago announced to the world the liberty of the United States, is now at the exposition in Atlanta. The arrival of this old and valued relic from Philadelphia to the "Convention City," created more excitement than anything that ever went into the gates.

A duel was fought near Maxville, Va., last week. Proctor and Shoemaker, first cousins, were the principals, aged 21 and 23 respectively. Five shots were fired by each. Proctor was shot in the side, and the wound is thought to be fatal. Shoemaker is in jail.

Gen. William Malone of Virginia died last week. He was in his 60th year. Gen. Malone was quite a prominent man and was known all over the country. His favorite sobriquet was, "Hero of the Crater," won by his wonderful courage in the attack when the Federal forces sprang a mine beneath the Confederate defense.

The Georgia Legislature convenes in the "Convention City," Atlanta, on the 23d instant. Many questions of grave importance will go before the body for consideration, among which is the anti-harbor bill, which is now attracting the attention of everybody all over the state of Georgia. It is sincerely trusted that our representatives will keep an open eye on this measure and be untiring in their work for the passage of the bill.

State school commissioner Glen has issued a call for a convention of the county school commissioners of the state, which will be held in the capitol at Atlanta. There are 137 school commissioners in the state, there being only one for each county. The convention is called to devise ways and means for bettering the school system of the state. It is principally the object of the meeting to improve the system in the rural districts, to get better buildings, better teachers, better books, and better methods of teaching.

The colored peoples' Methodist church is now beautifully plastered, has a new recess in rear of the pulpit, new sash and glass with the windows enlarged. Rev. R. C. Smith, the pastor, has received from the white people $13, colored folks, $9.25, paid in money himself $22.00 and has done voluntary work in plastering, etc., to the amount of $15, making $37.30 Smith himself has contributed.

Some who are able among the whites ought to help Smith bear this burden. Besides his liberality and preaching he is a first-class mechanician in brick work and plastering.

H. W.

Resolutions of thanks were passed to the citizens of Dahlonega for the great interest taken in the re-union.

We congratulate the association on the success of this, the 6th annual re-union, of the 52d Georgia and the veterans of the war between the states.

The place selected was the beautiful grove in the enclosure near the Boyd residence.

A stand was erected, seats furnished and the universal praise of the proceedings attested the fact that this meeting was highly enjoyed by the vast number present.

The welcome address, the speeches following and the songs sang on the occasion, were highly entertaining, and elicited the approval of all for their diction and pathos.

Long will the old "Vets" remember this occasion.

GRAND REMOVAL SALE!

J. E. Murphy's ENTIRE STOCK

To be closed out for cash in the next ninety days.

On Oct. 1st I will commence to close out my stock amounting to $30,000 consisting of

Dry Goods, Shoes, Clothing, Carpets, Hats, Groceries Etc.

No goods will be sold except for cash as I have decided to close out my stock in Gainesville, and in January next move my entire business to 76 and 78 Whitehall Street, Atlanta, Ga.

The most of my stock is goods bought in the last few months, and will be sold at extremely low prices. You will be surprised to see the great reductions I am making. I know it takes low prices to move a stock of goods for cash, but I mean what I say.

Treasury Statement.

The United States treasury statement issued Sept. 4th shows a net increase of the public debt during August of $2,815,418. The total national debt now stands at $112,696,450,25, thanks to Grover's addition to it of $62,000,000 of interest of bearing bonds issued during his administration to date.

When he gets a chance to issue his $500,000,000 of gold principal and gold interest bonds to take up and refire the greenbacks and coin notes which he desires to do and which authority he asked of the last congress, the national bonded debt will be back to near what it was after the close of the war thirty years ago.

The deficiency from the return is now over $3,000,000. The Democrats promised the country a tariff for revenue only. Well, we have the tariff, but where is the revenue?

This same statement shows the current circulation to be $1,603,678,028.

The statement also shows a decrease of money of all kinds in the United States on Sept.
1st of $10,953,938 and for the year a decrease of $3,000,000. This is the official statement of the secretary of the treasury.

Including the revenue deficiency there is an increase of the national indebtedness of $212,000,000 and a decrease of the circulating money of $3,000,000 during the past year.

The secretary puts the per capita circulation at $22,87.

Secretary Morton of the agricultural department makes an official statement also. He says the wheat crop will be 25 per cent. less than last year, also that the cotton crop will be 30 per cent. less than last year. All sincere and earnest free silver democrats can vote their sentiments in the people's party.

There are nearly four hundred national bankers in the New York state prison. The gold mania is rapidly becoming localized.

The Union National Bank of Denver closed with $75,000 county bonds in its pockets. More prosperity—for the bankers.

Hardin, Democratic candidate for governor of Kentucky, might get up a discussion with the platform on which he is running.

Some of the wedges which pha-tocracy has been using to divide the people seem to have gotten turned and now threaten to divide dividers.

Some of the free silver democrats are building fences that will be hard for them to jump in order to get back into the ranks of their party in 1896.

Funny that after the laborers have created the capitalists, these creatures should turn around and say that labor could not make a living without them.

Why not let the big reporters keep up a gold reserve in their own offices for export, instead of holding a national gold reserve for their special accommodation.

Texas has more populist voters and is the best organized of any state in the Union. They have no any politics down there but take the Omaha platform straight.

Most of the prominent democratic statesmen are now holding office and they don't seem inclined to want to give it up for the uncertainty of being elected President on the democratic ticket.

The easiest and most sensible way for the silver men to get together is to join the peoples' party which has already two million organized and earnest free silver men ready to vote as they preach.

The biography of John Sherman is the history and mystery of 30 years' financial legislation in the United States—and unless the development should turn state's evidence, the full story will never be written.

When the United States gets to the point where it can not protect its own credit without the aid of a syndicate of bankers, isn't it about time for the people to take charge of the government for a spell?

Populists, get ready for a storm.
Pull for the shoe as fast as possible, there's a cyclone coming and don't forget it. It will take a great deal more of debt, rage and fury to convert a good many of the democrats and republicans, but the war goes merrily on aid and time they will begin to smell a mouse.

The Real Republic.

It only requires a straw to show the direction of the wind. An old soldier at Topeka, Kansas, who demanded his pension check was ordered out of the bank. If the old soldiers would all demand it would show them what kind of friends are the gold bugs.

It ought to be patent to every southern and western democrat that voting for a free silver congressman to make a free silver coinage law, and at the same time voting for a gold bug president will set us to the same old game over again.

Tillman says he and his followers will bolt if the democratic party does not nominate a simon pure silver man. He said the same thing in 1892, but they didn't do it.
What we want now is to see the bolt and then we'll believe it.

The democratic party is hopelessly involved. The gold wing of it is aiding the republicans and the silver wing is acting as a recruiting agency for the peoples' party.

The real fight is between the republicans and populists, the democratic party representing nothing but dissension.

An exchange says that one of the reasons for maintaining a mayor is to protect our missionaries in foreign lands. That's the doctrine.

Crank our religion down their throats. If they don't take it with kicking shout the gizzard out of 'em.
What we need is a big navy to convert the heathen.

Swapping dollars is not redemption.

The gold mania is worse than hydrophobia.

England is at the bottom of the gold standard campaign.

Every gold bug in this country is working for England.

General Coxey is a prophet not without honor in his own state.

The sound money cry is only an echo from across the Atlantic Ocean.

The republicans seem to be enticing the situation, but their time will come next.

Dahlonega Signal.

DAHLONEGA, Oct. 25, 1895.

Entered at the Dahlonega, Ga. P. O., as second class matter.

The entire country is suffering from the effects of drought.

The annual convention of the Georgia Farmers' Alliance convened in Atlanta Oct. 23d.

The Georgia Legislature convened in Atlanta the 23d inst., with a full force of lively representatives.

Mr. W. R. Chamberlain of Jackson county has settled in Atlanta to practice under one of the leading attorneys of that city.

The Sub-Alliance of White county will meet at Woodland, three miles from Moosay Creek camp-ground, to-morrow. All Alliances are cordially invited to attend.

Brother Thomas of the Dawsonville Advertisers showed up at the Circus in great shape Tuesday. He had a dozen dead-head tickets, and lots of friends sticking to him—Eagle.

810,700 bales of cotton were sold in New York, Monday. This is the largest one day's sale on record. The average price per bale was $19, which total amounts to $32,428,000.

The wealthiest man now in the United States is Barney Barnato. He is estimated to be worth between $50,000,000 and a hundred millions of dollars. Once a penniless lad, but now loaded down with diamonds and gold.

The train bearing President Cleveland and his Cabinet to Atlanta Tuesday, is one of the handsomest ever constructed—all palaces on wheels. It was made up under the direction of W. H. Baldwin, built at a cost of $35,000.

Fifteen indictments were found in the United States court against white-cappers in Union county. Albert Phillips reported a blockade still and a few nights afterwards 15 rode up to his home and attacked him. Phillips was carried off from the house and was severely whipped.

The women suffragists have pitched their camp in Georgia and they are going to make an attack on the legislature. They are going to have the right to vote, hold office, perform generally in public like men, wear men's clothes and whoop up the boys at corn shockings and political jamborees. Oh, but the girls are going to make matters lively in Georgia!—Blakely Observer.

That big-brained Grover Cleveland passed through Gainesville Tuesday, on the south bound train. We guess he was going down to the exposition to show himself to the Georgia "greenhorns." No, we were not there to take a "bird's-eye view" with the other "singers," and if we had, we don't have the faintest idea that anybody would have recognized us—"a-tall," while we are "just as big a man" as Grover.

We learn that the Pickens county marble company has bought the Head shoals, on the Amicalola river in Dawson county, and will erect mills for the working of marble. This company has an option on all the river property to Steel's bridge, 7 miles above. They will build a railroad from the marble quarries to the shoals, a distance of 13 miles, and this will in time probably be extended on to Dawsonville, 7 miles, and from thence to Gainesville, if sufficient inducements are afforded.—Eagle.

Major Bolton, chief engineer of the Dahlonega railroad, was on his way to Washington Monday last. He has finished locating the line from this place to the copper mines and upon his departure ordered his men to begin a new survey to Lula to run on the south side of Walker mountain, the survey made sometime since having run on the north side of the mountain. It will take several weeks to make the survey, after which time a permanent route will be decided upon and work will immediately commence on the road, or at least we hope so. The prospects for a railroad to our little village are brighter than ever before, and without a doubt we will get it within another year's time!

Escape of Will Myers.

A profound regret now goes out to the world of the escape of Will Myers, Georgia's notorious murderer, from Fulton county jail, who murdered in cold blood for his money one of the best and well-known young men of Georgia. He decoyed Forrest L. Crawley out from Atlanta, pretending to want to sell him some stock in Sept., '94, and deliberately shot Crawley, robbing him of his personal effects.

Myers has been twice tried for the offence and once sentenced to hang. His case is now having its final hearing before the Supreme court and pending this hearing, which would have been final and doomed him to the gallows, Myers ran out by the jailor of Fulton county Monday afternoon, dashing madly like lightning, and made his escape.

Up to this writing Myers has deduced every conceivable plan to capture him, and it is now believed that, so complete was the concocted arrangement for his escape, he will never be apprehended.

Crawley's father immediately went to the Governor on hearing of Myers' escape, and the Governor offered a reward of two hundred dollars for the capture of the fugitive from justice. This was supplemented by an additional reward of three hundred dollars by the Sheriff of Fulton county.

Forrest Crawley, the murdered man, was a young gentleman of universal popularity, the embodiment of honor and liberality. His friends throughout the state have been waiting to see Myers atone for one of the most heinous offences that was ever committed in Georgia.

We await with an anxious heart to see the young murderer captured and hung.

The reward has been increased to eight hundred dollars. Latest account: Myers is still at large.

The World's Fair Tests
showed no baking powder
so pure or so great in leavening power as the Royal.

The great trouble with the "peoples" party is, that it is not so well organized as it should be. One of the important elements in all successful undertakings is organization. Begin the organization at home. We are especially interested in the Ninth District, therefore we urge the county chairman throughout the District to start the ball to rolling and the Chairman of the District, will lead you all the better possible. In the near future the District Committee will be called together, but this committee can do little without the aid of the County Chairman throughout the entire district.

N. F. HOWARD.

Cincinnati, Oct. 20—Preparations for the casting of a mammoth church bell have been going on some weeks at the Buckley Bell Foundry in this city. The bell will be larger than the famous 13-ton bell at Montreal, which is now the greatest on the continent. In ornamentation it will surpass all bells in existence and will be the largest swinging bell in the world. It will supplement a chime of forty bells. The clapper weighs 640 pounds. It is to swing in St. Francis de Sales church.

Ten Babies, Three Mothers.

Lureverne, Ala., October 21.—Ten new babies and three mothers are the record of a week in the neighborhood near Fort Deposit, in Lowndes county.

Mrs. Hattimer, the estimable wife of the leading merchant of Fort Deposit, gave birth to three children on last Monday, two boys and one girl. The mother and babies are doing well.

Mrs. Hunter, whose husband is a well-to-do farmer and who resides about three miles from the Fort, followed the suit of Mrs. Hattimer, and on Tuesday evening gave birth to a tall, well-formed, fully developed baby, and all are doing finely.

Mrs. Champion broke the record on Wednesday noon and gave birth to four children. Dr. Tankersley, who attended the mother, says that they are all doing well.
